

Hopefully

Baby she shady deals we make with beliefs
 So we can get around the corner
 Maybe our bloody heels got us away
 We been sad to her damn lies
 And all our wishes I'm sure hit the champagne painted pop
 We lie like the cork on the floor looking at the bubbles

Hopefully Spinetessy Hopefully
 Though who knows if that's the proper usage of the word.

Everybody says well not everybody
 But a lot of bodies
 And if we don't say it Some'll say 'at we need antibiotics things gonna get better an' better they say
 " " " " " " " "

~~There's~~ There's circles in our eyes and circles on the ground and we worship the straight line healing in infinity - Infinity Infinity
 Though who knows if there's really such a thing?
