

ALL that we assume

In the midst of the wall <sup>D</sup> by the <sup>A</sup> darker light of the moon <sup>DAGA'</sup> He forsook all his <sup>DAGA'</sup> stalls when he saw me reflect in a <sup>DAGA'</sup> spoon and he said to me then <sup>DAGA'</sup> as we walked in the 2nd hand store <sup>DAGA'</sup> something of how we all <sup>EM</sup> seem to depend on the floor. <sup>A</sup> all that we assume in <sup>Bm</sup> the light of the day <sup>A</sup> insist in the <sup>B7</sup> damp in the dark in the back of a <sup>B7</sup> cave

Ch. <sup>EM</sup> One and one is two <sup>EM</sup> but maybe not for <sup>B7</sup> you
all that we assume
is too much to say. <sup>A</sup>

In the back of the bar round the table with cigarette burns, Reality's thin but the crunch on the men in their turns, and again he replied <sup>B7</sup> behind his with his hand in his hand

"When I forgot the cards I found I depend on the chair."

(Ch.)

Then one day at the beach where the burles had washed in from the stream He was dried by the wind and seemed so with he was warm.

and when asked how the water replied in a tone of despair
"I could float in the sub but still I depend on the air."

(Ch.)
