

Love for you is Waiting

Love for you is waiting

DMT Patient and discreet.

Extending through all moments and down into the street.

Absolutely won't resist

It hollow and complete

Breathing of a body

DMT your body too

It love for you.

My warmth for you is shawing Frozen patterns trace like a child of hatred

Who's finding his smooth face, even though we go around

We soften in our pace

Deaf in dumb in black in blue

Unfolding is my love for you.

Love for you is rolling

Beyond the nutty days lies without hope or pity at the bottom of the bay

Can not come upon you and will not slide away

Do not move or feed

as you suffocate into

This love for you.
