Had a visit from a friend
Stopped by to say hello
Had a visit from a friend
How the time does go

Took off his shoes and walked inside
Sat down on the floor
Little content lots of form
How things come and go

We pause to look at paper
We lean and drink some grain
Dressed in vegetables
we laughed and shared a little pain

Cloth in wood in paper in stone
Grain in water in air
That's about all we had to touch and see and share
Indian bedspread Iguana statue vase a book on barns some sketches of a face on keep Turquoise from the Hopi
Smooth in hand in clear
Didn't have any crackers
But we finished off the beer

Cotton keeps the weather out
Incense keeps the F/oor holds us each needs
But another ushers.
